

FINANCIAL AID

Physician Assistant Education can be costly. However, there are funding options available to ensure that you meet these costs. Prudent management is the key to your financial survival. You must plan, budget and above all, read all the financial assistance materials you can obtain.

Federal Loans provide the foundation for the majority of students in this program. The Direct Federal Loan Program allows you to borrow a maximum of $20,500 per academic year (2 semesters). With a 1.062% origination fee.

TYPES OF FEDERAL LOANS

LOAN PROGRAM	AMOUNT*	RELEVANT INFORMATION
FEDERAL DIRECT UNSUBSIDIZED STAFFORD	Up to $20,500 per year (2 semesters)	Fixed interest rate of 6.595%. This loan does not have a federal interest subsidy and the interest accrues on the loan from the time it is disbursed into the student's account. Graduate students qualify for unsubsidized loans up to the difference between the $20,500 annual limit and the amount received in subsidized loan funds.
FEDERAL DIRECT GRADUATE PLUS LOAN	Up to student's Cost of Attendance (minus deducted before the University receives the loan funds. Please be aware after July 1st interest rates and origination fees are subject to change. Changes are made by the Federal Government.

Please note that disbursement of funds and refunds vary per student based on completion of Financial aid requirements.
