

Appropriate Use Policy for Information Technology

Table of Contents

- 01. Introduction2
 - Identity of Information Technology Resources at Pace University2
 - Appropriate Use of IT Resources.....2
 - Guidelines2
- 02. Guidelines for Appropriate Pace IT Use2
- 03. Access to IT Resources.....6
 - Central IT Resources6
 - Other IT Resources7
 - Departmental IT Resources7
- 04. Data Security and Integrity7
 - ITS-Maintained Equipment7
 - Departmental Facilities.....8
- 05. Privacy8
 - Access by IT Staff on Behalf of the University8
 - Access by Administrators of Departmental IT Systems8
 - Electronic Communications9
- 06. Ownership of Copyright for Materials Developed with Pace's Resources9
- 07. Responsibility for Errors in Software, Hardware, and Consulting9
- 08. Changes in the Pace IT Environment.....9
- 09. Non-Compliance.....9
- 10. Comments, Suggestions, Corrections, etc.10
- 11. Approvals.....10
- 12. Revision History10
- 12. Disclaimer Statement10

01. Introduction

- d) Anonymous postings to blogs and wikis are not permitted. Owners of blogs and wikis may not reconfigure the system to allow anonymous postings.
- e) Comments are an integral part of Web 2.0. All comments will be run through a SPAM engine.

10. Comments, Suggestions, Corrections, etc.

Questions concerning this or any other Information Technology Policy can be directed to the ITS Customer Support Center via <http://helpdesk.pace.edu>.

11. Approvals

This Appropriate Use Policy for Information Technology document is developed and maintained by the Information Technology Services division.

12. Revision History

Version	Date	Change	Author
1.0	4/24/2018	Previous version converted into official policy template. Policy reviewed and updates made to password and email sections.	CE
1.1	5/11/2018	Formatted	DM
1.2	10/28/19	Fixed Broken Links	CE
1.3	11/29/19	Additional edits in various sections	CE
1.4	2/22/21	Added clarifications on email and third-party document sharing sites. University Counsel review and approval	CE/ PD/ SB